

Nothing

Craig Xen

Sometimes I feel like feelin' nothing
Feelin' nothing, feelin' nothing
Sometimes I feel like feelin' nothing
Feelin' nothing, feelin' nothing

I don't feel right
Losing my mind
I see you all the time
Only when I shut my eyes
I don't feel right
I'm losing my mind
I see you all the time
Only when I shut my eyes

Sometimes I feel like feelin' nothing
Feeling nothing, feeling nothing
Sometimes I feel like feelin' nothing
Feeling nothing, feeling nothing

I can still feel pain on the inside
On the inside, on the inside
I can still see your face in the moonlight
In the moonlight, in the moonlight

Sometimes I feel like feelin' nothing
Feelin' nothing, feelin' nothing
Sometimes I feel like I ain't feeling nothing
Feelin' nothing, feelin' nothing

I won't let you let me down
I was lost, but then you found me
Take my hand, don't make a sound
I can't stand to see you drowning
