Evidently niggas want my head, I'm like "really, man?"
Really, fam? We was just together talking breaking bread
Silly, man, fake snaking nigga, you reptilian
Really, man? I don't think you know just what you up against

If it was up to me, shit, I'd spare all of y'all
I don't wanna be behind the reason that yo body fall
It's a lot of people caring 'bout me, man
Since they heard that shit you said, they steady asking where you at

Let's be men about it, we could sit it down and talk it out
I know that you ain't about that shit that you be talking 'bout
Remember when I beat yo ass and you pulled that pistol out?
Then you got locked up, you see my niggas and you [?]
God damn, keep it real
In the burbs, living with yo moms, you ain't in the field
All I'm tryna say is if you really wanna let a life or death decision be made on a temporary feeling?

Evidently niggas want my head, I'm like "really, man?"
Really, fam? We was just together talking breaking bread
Silly, man, fake snaking nigga, you reptilian
Really, man? I don't think you know just what you up against

If it was up to me, shit, I'd let it slide
I'm willing to put this shit aside if you swallow pride
I got better shit to spend my time on, man
The fact that you be steady bumping gums got my mind gone

I remember fronting you a quarter, dawg
You was struggling, said that you was finna have a daughter
Once again, I'm tryna help you out
'Cause I know how yo moms would take it if she seen your mouth wide
We come from the same sub divison
But between my people and y'all people, mane, it's a big difference
My people been in and out of prison
You and all y'all people subtweeting me on Twitter, man

Evidently niggas want my head, I'm like "really, man?"
Really, fam? We was just together talking breaking bread
Silly, man, fake snaking nigga, you reptilian
Really, man? I don't think you know just what you up against

I thought this shit died out
I ain't seen you in two years, my name still in your mouth
Niggas talk behind my back 'cause they stuck in the past
I excel, I proceed, I move up in my class
