

Thy Truth, Then, Be Thy Dower

Craig Xen

Can't trust nobody, I won't
Trust nobody, I can't
Trust nobody, I won't
Trust nobody, I can't
Nope, aye
Can't trust nobody
Who I say, who I trust mane
Can't trust nobody, I can't
Can't trust nobody, I can't
Can't trust nobody, Look

I can't trust nobody, cause they prove they ain't worthy, look
Say a lot of things, they actions don't match they wordplay
Everything I seen behind the scenes, why I'm one deep
Staking, yeah they scared to look my eyes when they speak to me
Real fucking talk, try to play me, have you dropped out
Shooters from the streets, mine got military background
It's a lot of differences between them and Xen
Main reason being, I'm too real to fuck with them
Aye

I can't trust nobody, cause they prove they ain't worthy, aye
Say a lot of shit, they actions don't match they wordplay
Everything I see behind the scenes, why I'm one deep
Staking, yeah they scared to look my eyes when they speak to me

Shout out to my G, Leaf
Shouts out to my big nigga Mikey
Might be little minute until we out here
Best bet when we do, we will all beast
See, Xen, I grind like Lil B
Got game from the bitch I was fifteen
Now I'm twenty one, packed out a venue
Independent no label, Jiu-Jitsu
Way I move when I strike like a young Leek
Flow like a bodywater when I'm on a bean
Might be more lyrical than me, but a dash can't out grind me
Might be a little dog up in this industry
But the fight in me bigger then anything
I'ma keep on fighting, keep on swinging
Craig Xen, no pretending out winning me
Fuck nigga
Huh

I can't, can't trust nobody
I can't, can't trust nobody
I can't, can't trust nobody
Trust nobody, can't trust nobody
I won't trust nobody
But know that God got me bitch
