

Don't Tell Me No Lies

Crash The System

I remember those days
When I fell for your promises
There were nights
They kept me awake
What a stupid mistake

Now walk the walk
Your smooth lying talk
Is addictive to anyone
You could be, a savior in need
But turn on a dime

You can do
Whatever you like, but...

Don't tell me no lies, I know there's Something that you hide
Don't tell me no lies, Cause you've been
Cheating all this time, Don't tell me no lies

How do you think you'll survive
Will you turn back the hands of time
Another face will soon take your place
'Cause you're losing the fight

You don't have to say why
'Cause it's all in your eyes
It goes on and on and
On and on
