

Rolling Stone

Crash The System

At first you told me
We're through
Then it turned into an
I love you
And now you tell me to wait
Is it all just fate?

You can fool me once
Don't fool me twice
Your love
That's worth the price

Love can be
Like a rolling stone
It goes on and on
And on and on
You told me to wait
Now it is too late
To start over again

I wanna feel you at night
Baby, I wanna touch you
And hold you tight
There's no one else
Just like you, I don't care
What we're going through

If you fool me once
Don't fool me twice
Your love
That's worth the price

Baby, you told me
You're mine, yeah
And you would be
'Til the end of time
All those clouds of doubt
Are too far gone
Too far gone
