

Shell Shock

Crashdiet

When the night falls I feel the kicks
Just a notion, I need a fix
I feel your heartbeat, I'm getting closer
You scream for mercy but you're alone

There is no easy way out
Beyond the shadow of doubt
You keep on running
But you're soon out of breath

Shell shock
A burst of fire
No return is justified
Shell shock
A pleasure game
In no man's land you're bound to fail
Shell shock
Shell shock

Your time is over, no time for tricks
A cold temptation, I touch your lips
A shot of pleasure, I've reached the top
Shifting levels, I cannot stop

There is no easy way out
Beyond the shadow of doubt
You keep on running
But you're soon out of breath

Shell shock
A burst of fire
No return is justified
Shell shock
A pleasure game
In no man's land you're bound to fail
Shell shock
Shell shock
Shell shock

Shell shock
Shell shock

As the bones turn, turn into dust
And all that's broken, adds to my lust

There is no easy way out
Beyond the shadow of doubt
You keep on running
But you're soon out of breath

Shell shock
A burst of fire
No return is justified
Shell shock
A pleasure game
In no man's land you're bound to fail
Shell shock

A burst of fire
No return is justified
Shell shock
A pleasure game
In no man's land you're bound to fail
Shell shock
Shell shock
Shell shock
