Led alone, now way too gone
A legacy that paints them blonde
In stereo
In stereo
If you buy hate and then raise you up
The warring child, the prime time
The idol
The idiots

You want it So take it The voices fight

You're living on your own way
And everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Living on your own way
Everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Together whatever

See me, leather skin tight boots
What the earth, nothing to lose
A riot
A riot
Set the tone and play along
Always dare and never gone
You're screaming
And dreaming

You got it Don't fake it I'll let them try

You're living on your own way
And everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Living on your own way
Everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Together whatever

Step aside, there's no return Watch this world just burn, burn, burn

You're living on your own way
And everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Living on your own way
Everybody's screaming
Feeling all around me
Together whatever

Step aside, there's no return
