

Waiting for Your Love

Crashdiet

She is left behind
Out of time and light
Nothing seems to change, it's all the same
And her diary of lies
Dusty by her side
'Cause the last page she wrote
Were some unfinished love-letter notes

I've been waiting for your love
I've be waiting to come home
Home to you

Under sheets of shame
Oh, she cries in vain
And she's lost her faith in everything
And her memory fades
Can't remember his name
All the lines in her face say
She's leaving this place for good
And she took the last breath and said

I've been waiting for your love
I've been waiting for your love
To be true
I've been waiting for your love
I've be waiting to come home
Home to you, you

She is left behind
Out of time and light
Nothing seems to change, it's all the same
And she took her last breath and said

I've been waiting for your love
I've been waiting for your love
To be true
I've been waiting for your love
I've been waiting for your love
To be true, true
