

Call It Love

Crawlers

Grieving for all the time that I miss
But you turned as I kissed, you turned when we kissed
Now I won't eat and for you I'll restrict
This is, love isn't it? This is love, isn't it?
The light on your screen dims as the seams
Of what we had fall apart, what we have fall apart
I liked you best when you merged with the walls
And you come when I call, you come when I call

Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right

I'll tone it down till you're far away
So at least for a day, at least for a day
I'll live life how I did as a child
I think it's best if I stay, I think it's best if I stay
Now I lay home melting into my seat
Flinch if I hear your feet, flinch if I hear your feet
My mind is telling me no, but that's all just in my head
In my head

Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right

Now I'd rather not have loved at all
And all the pieces you took didn't survive the fall
I've loved and lived passed you, but I'm a shell from it all
Rebuilding pieces with hands that don't fit with mine like yours
Yours

Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right, feels right, feels right
Call it love, call it anything you like
But it feels right

We called it love, love
We called it love, love
We called it love
