

MASQUERADE

CRAZY

I've been looking for the trick you're hiding
Try to see behind the mask you've made
I'm so sick of following your disguises
Feelin' like a masquerade
Keep it real and show me that you love me
Instead of putting on a second face
Baby, you and me could be a party
But I'll never go to a masquerade

Gettin' bored with a bad boy put aside
Stupid and crazy
Gettin' tired, reading that camoflaughe
My heart is drowsy
Yeah, I've been waiting for you paitiently
Tryna see if you will drop the axe on me
Better let go of your bullshit
Keep it one hundred or you will lose it

Oh, tryna conceal what your truly feelin' now
But, baby, I know that it's only just for show
I know you scared to bare it all
To let me see you're one of a...
Tryna pretend like you don't give a damn
But I see right through it

I've been looking for the trick you're hiding
Try to see behind the mask you've made
I'm so sick of following your disguises
Feelin' like a masquerade
Keep it real and show me that you love me
Instead of putting on a second face
Baby, you and me could be a party
But I'll never go to a masquerade

(La-la, never ever)

Tic-toc, get the time please, what?
Chop-chop, hurry up before the sunrise
All of your secrets, go on, put 'em on me
Burying your life no one needs dirty laundry
You know life can be a thrill (Party grudge)
Show me how you feel (Yah-yah-yah)
So go and stop pretending
Before I have to end it

Oh, tryna conceal what your truly feelin' now
But, baby, I know that it's only just for show
I know you scared to bare it all
To let me see you're one of a-
Tryna pretend like you don't give a damn
But I see right through it

I've been looking for the trick you're hiding
Try to see behind the mask you've made
I'm so sick of following your disguises
Feelin' like a masquerade
Keep it real and show me that you love me

Instead of putting on a second face
Baby, you and me could be a party
But I'll never go to a masquerade

Won't go to a masquerade
Won't go to a masquerade
Hate to rain on your parade
But I won't go to a masquerade

You're afraid (You're afraid)
But I want you to be, oh, mine (Oh, mine)
But you won't be if you never open up
Never show your love
Baby, let me indeed
You'll see you are enough
Don't wear a mask for me

I've been looking for the trick you're hiding
Try to see behind the mask you've made
I'm so sick of following your disguises
Feelin' like a masquerade
Keep it real and show me that you love me
Instead of putting on a second face
Baby, you and me could be a party
But I'll never go to a masquerade

Won't go to a masquerade
Won't go to a masquerade
Hate to rain on your parade
But I won't go to a masquerade
