

The Group Mind Has Decided You're In Love

Crazy Ex-Girlfriend Cast

You say you're broken up, that it's over
Yes, you've both been 'bout as stubborn as can be

You tell 'em, Maya!

But we see from afar
Just how cute you are
And the thought of it makes everyone all squee

Squee! Squee! Squee!

We don't know why you're fightin' the inevitable

With ya, Timmy!

It's clear to us that you are both soulmates
Plus, you're kinda the only two
LGBTQ
People I know, so to me, it's clearly fate

Fate, fate, fate!

You need to get out more, Tim

It's confirmed

The group mind has decided you're in love

Court adjourned

Now kiss a little

Kiss a little
The mass mob has declared that you're in love
Love, love, love!

Rebecca, don't you have bigger problems going on right now?

Yes, and this is a welcome distraction
Now, you might say we just need a distraction

You just said that!

Shh!
From the stress and drama of our lives
But I go "la la la la" when you swear
That there's nothing there

You're love's the only reason I survive

Sorry, what's your name again?

It's confirmed

The group mind has decided you're in love

Say "yes" to long term!

Say "yes"

Look what I whittled

Hot dang!

The mass mob has decided you're in love

Love, love, love!

Everybody stretch, time to dance!

What are you guys doing here?

We all want you back together, too

Who is this guy?

I needed a dance partner, and I've had a really hard week, so please let me have this

Okay, so this is not about us at all

They're just randomly doing ballet now?

It's hard to follow. That is not the correct dance language for this piece

Stop it! Leave these guys alone! For the record, it is possible to be platonically friends with someone you've broken up with!

Do you really believe that?

No, I just wanted to be in the number

Kiss, kiss, kiss, kiss!

Dance, dance, dance, dance!

Kiss, dance, kiss, dance!

Kiss, dance, kiss, dance, kiss, dance, yay!

It's confirmed! (Wee-ha!)

It's official! (Yee-hoo!)

The group mind has decided you're in love

Hey, where'd they go?

Who cares?

Horse!
