

Death Row

Crazy Lixx

My way, highway, here's where the wreckin' is You've been down too long to see through this mess
She told me straight away, you ain't gettin' any say
It's my game, my play, make my day
Better get yourself a gun, 'cause there's nowhere you can run

Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
My time is due, I'd die for you
Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
Pull my trigger and blow me away

Take me, break me, use me, then let me go
You've been lying all along, I don't believe how you could hurt me so
Is the reason for this treason changing men like changing seasons
Do you know you put the leash on every actor in your show
But I guess I won't be 'round for you to let me know

Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
My time is due, I'd die for you
Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
Pull my trigger and blow, blow me away

Lovin' you is like the
Lovin' you is like the
Death row, honey

Lovin' you is like the death row, honey (death row!)
My time is due, I'd die for you
Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
Pull my trigger and blow me away
Blow me away!

Lovin' you is like the death row, honey (death row!)
Lovin' you is like the death row, honey
Pull my trigger and blow me away
Just blow me away!

Lovin' you is like the death row, honey!
