Hunt for Danger

Crazy Lixx

Hiding away from rejection
Living with imperfection
I'm not sure if my mind still knows
The place it wants to go

Making a change in direction
I'm looking for intervention
What I thought was the higher road
Led to my lowest low

What's the use, I cannot lie
I still want it all and I don't know why

One truth, two lies
All night, still I hunt for danger
One choice, who dies?
Roll the dice
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger

Losing it all while pretending
The moment was never ending
The space that I kept in my heart
Was simply washed away

There's no excuse, I'm on a high
I'm givin' it all, just to feel this alive

One truth, two lies
All night, still I hunt for danger
One choice, who dies?
Roll the dice
Still I hunt for danger

One voice, to decide
I tried but still I hunt for danger
Want proof? My pride
Pushed aside
And still I hunt for danger

One truth, two lies
All night, still I hunt for danger
One choice, who dies?
Roll the dice
Still I hunt for danger

One voice, to decide
I tried but still I hunt for danger
Want proof? My pride
Pushed aside
And still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger
Still I hunt for danger...
