

Killer

Crazy Lixx

A cold summer night
See the mist rise from the lake
Their bodies still warm
Though their lives have all escaped
Try not to move
Try not to make a sound
Hearing his footsteps all around

Cause there's a killer
A killer on the run
Yeah there's a killer
A killer on the run
He's prowling the woods
Out in the night
Looking for blood
And he's got you in sight
Yeah there's a killer
A killer on the run

The pale moonlight
Flickers like candles through the trees
Still he's nowhere to be seen
He's out in the dark silently watching you
Waiting to make his final move

Yeah there's a killer
A killer on the run
Yeah there's a killer
A killer on the run
He's prowling the woods
Out in the night
Looking for blood
And he's got you in sight
Yeah there's a killer
A killer on the run

Killer
A killer on the run
He's prowling the woods
Out in the night
Looking for blood
And he's got you in sight
Yeah there's a killer (killer)
A killer on the run
(Killer on the run)
There's a killer
(Killer on the run)
He's prowling the woods
Out in the night
Looking for blood
Yeah there's a killer (killer)
A killer on the run
Killer
