

Reach Out

Crazy Lixx

In my dreams, I fought this fight a million times Wide awake, there's everything to prove
I've been lost, but I can see things clearly now
Time has come, the time to make a change

Standing at the crossroads, wondering where this road will lead
Rising from the ashes, like a phoenix, from the flames, I fly a gain

Reach out, hold on
Live to win, be the best and heed the call
Reach out and hold on
Take the fight, make a stand and have it all

In my life, I'd always take the safer road
But there's a voice, it tells me to be brave
What I am, it's my decision, mine alone
And if I fall, I'll fight to rise again

Standing at the crossroads, wondering where this road will lead
(where this road will lead)
Rising from the ashes, like a phoenix, from the flames, I fly a
gain

Reach out, hold on
Live to win, to be the best and heed the call
Reach out and hold on
Take the fight, make a stand and have it all

Reach out, hold on
Live to win, be the best and heed the call
Reach out and hold on
And forget the pain
Reach out and hold on
And hide your fears
