Cream Soda

Bite my hand, dear, I know your ground
I don't care, it ain't anything I couldn't go on without
I should've noticed, in fact, I did
There's no love in you, love in me

Share my loss, be the one I won't recognize
In the crowd of the people I'll never know
You should've noticed, I hope you did
There's no love in me, love in you, love in me

Nothing matters anymore
Now I know for sure

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go
Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go
Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care

I won't tell any touching words
Never been kinda a person to torment about different jerks
Hating lies I'mma top sincere
There's no love in you, love in me

Bite my hand, dear, I know your ground
I don't care, it ain't anything I couldn't go on without
I should've noticed, in fact, I did
There's no love in you, love in me

Nothing matters anymore
Now I know for sure

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go
Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go
Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care

Look I don't care if you go away
Nobody's forcing you to stay
Ah, ah, look I don't care if you go
