Buried Alive

Creature Feature

I forever dream within a dream
Of a certain city in the sea
As I walk the valley of unrest
Behind this mask of crimson death

I long for a loss of breath
And a most dire predicament
Murders in the rue morgue
Silence and shadow's what I adore

I can't explain just how it feels The thought of my premature burial Inside this oblong box I lie With the hopes I'll be buried alive

The oval portrait upon the wall Will someday cause this house to fall The power of words left unsaid As I join the spirits of the dead

I can't explain just how it feels
The thought of my premature burial
Inside this oblong box I lie
With the hopes I'll be buried alive

Well, I'm the man who's used up Washed up Bricked up

Descent into maelstrom Bedlam Redrum

Bet the devil my head Misled Bloodshed

Heart under the floorboards Beats for Lenore Nevermore

I can't explain just how it feels
The thought of my premature burial
Inside this oblong box I lie
With the hopes I'll be buried alive
