

Wake the Dead

Creature Feature

Dressed in black, Join the pack
Through the dark we have embarked
Endless night, shunned by light
Condemned to earth we will have rebirth

Seances and ceremonies
Behind closed doors
Abandoned words
And ancient symbols covers the floor
Singing songs
And burning candles
In the Graveyard
We must eradicate
This vicious killer at large
Its not too late to stop this
As we journey into darkness
Where Gods fear to tred
The time has come to be renewed
And now before the night is through
We'll wake the dead!

Dead inside, breathe new life!
Free your bones from the catacombs
Take control of your soul
The heavens weep as you rise from sleep
