It only hurts,

The eyes around me are so cold With every chance they steal my soul So walk with me, Talk with me, Hold my hand I'm stumbling In consequence here is me alive Can you fix what's made to be broken I can't fix what's made to be My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I'm not hiding No It only hurts to breathe My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I know it's blinding It only hurts to breathe Standing now and alone I need answers tell me everything you know So heavy is the night Exhausted Whispers tend to crucify my mind I'm fighting but I'm blind Can you fix what's made to be broken I can't fix what's made to be My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I'm not hiding It only hurts to breathe My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I know it's blinding No It only hurts, It only hurts, It only hurts to breathe I shout out Can you hear me? Mistakes have cost me years Do they cost you? Are you like me? Tell me - please... My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I'm not hiding It only hurts to breathe My Heart is tattooed on my sleeve I know it's blinding It only hurts,
