

Pink Squirrel

Creep Show

You know to act like I'm a little bit, no, no, no
You got to elevate your yellow baby, way to go
You say it is but you know it ain't
You say you can but you know you can't

Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrels are like calling shots, they lay down creepy beats
Pink squirrels are like calling shots, they pose as creepy freaks

You think your style in a thinner baby, is that so?
Are you related to Godzilla, baby, do you know?
You think you're funky but you got no stank
Now change your style, man, it just super rank

Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrels are like calling shots, they lay down creepy beats
Pink squirrels are like calling shots, they pose as creepy freaks

You take offense as if you understand what I just said
You're more convincing, baby, when you stick to playing dead
You say it's down when you know it's up
You're making squeaky noises like a newborn pup

Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrel's gon' get special treats, they lay down at your feet
Pink squirrels are like calling shots, they lay down creepy beats
