

A Shadow Stirs

Creeper

Beneath the flashing neon lights of a distant dream
A rock 'n' roll nightmare is coming true
A dark cloud is creeping across the world
And whispering backwards through the radio Rock music is a horny vampire, and tonight it is feasting upon you
But on the horizon, a shadow stirs
A new force rises through the mist, ready to hunt the hunter
A creature of lust, power, and light, here to devour the darkne ss
In a world of excess and violence
Sometimes going all the way is just the start
The battle between good and evil has begun
May God have mercy on their souls
