Creepo

Annabelle
We're both going to hell
You're gonna love the clientele
Cheap rent and the climate's swell
Anabelle
I've been drunk since half-past twelve
Don't bring me down
Don't bring me down

The world, it seems
To be ending constantly
Between the smoke and drink and getting high
I'd shed a tear if I could find the time, oh

Ah-ah-ah...
God can't save us!
Ah-ah-ah...
So let's live like sinners
Commiserations to your mum and your dad
My reassurances it's not that bad
Ah-ah-ah...
You gotta live a little
When the world just wants you sad

Anabelle
Where the forbidden dwell
Come lay me down
Come lay me down

The world, it seems
To be ending constantly
Between the smoke and drink and getting high
I'd shed a tear if I could find the time, oh

Ah-ah-ah...
God can't save us!
Ah-ah-ah...
So let's live like sinners
Commiserations to your mum and your dad
My reassurances it's not that bad
Ah-ah-ah...
You gotta live a little
When the world just wants you sad

The heavens are open
The angels descending
God bless you, undress you
And this unhappy ending
The underworld kids
Of the choir will sing
Hallelujah!
God has left the building

Ah-ah-ah...
God can't save us!
Ah-ah-ah...
So let's live like sinners

Commiserations to your mum and your dad
My reassurances it's not that bad
Ah-ah-ah...
You gotta live a little
When the world just wants you sad
