

Ghost Brigade

Creeper

So keen and quiet
Her lips are violent
And every kiss could become the final blow
Follow him home back
To his bedroom
She'll trace the footprints upon the virgin snow

The desire in her eyes

To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night
Went and ripped the moon down from the sky
To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night

Smoking slowly
Exhaling only
To whisper words that
Could turn our hearts to stone
Under lamplight, how
Can you fight it?
You, take her home or
You spend the night alone

The desire in her eyes

To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night
Went and ripped the moon down from the sky
To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night

And all you bloodlust kids sing:
(Girl) Girl, do you find yourself
Staring up at the stars
Dreaming of Someone else? (Someone else)
Dream in black and white
In the pale moonlight
It's our curse
Of endless night (Endless night)
'Cause you're skimmers
All sinning
And milk
I'm possessed (I'm possessed)
I'm possessed by you
Girl I want you to Make it hurt

To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night
Went and ripped the moon down from the sky
To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night (Say goodbye)
Went and ripped the moon down from the sky
To say goodbye
To say goodbye to endless night (Say goodbye)

To say goodbye
To endless night
