

Honeymoon Suite

Creper

We got hollow hearts and heavy heads
We never will get better
Mid July and dead inside
I feel the expectation in conversation
Whether it's forever or not
Alive, but dead inside

So let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away, away

You can hold a hand for the thousandth time
And still feel alone in the skin
I try. I'm dead inside
When you breathe me out like a cigarette
I breathe you out to breathe you in
I'm alive, but dead inside

(You sip your coke, I barely breathe
You're sweet to me but you rot my teeth)

So let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away, away

She is a sweet sleep, I am a nosebleed
Her taste is aniseed, your love is just not enough
She is a sweet sleep, I am a nosebleed
Her taste is aniseed, your love is just not enough

A shard of past. Your lip balm
I carved your name with it into my palm
My 'bad luck charm'

So let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
Tell me your truth and crash on the couch
Let's get Hexed, let's hangout
I wish me away, away
