

After Isolation

Crematory

In the silence of the room
I'm feeling lost and torn
But I won't let the shadows take control
I will be reborn
I'll find my way back to the light
No more confined by the night

After isolation
I will rise
With hope in my heart and a fire burning bright
After isolation
I will shine
Entering a brand-new day after the endless fight

No longer trapped in fear
I've learned to embrace the truth
The joy is always near Dreams that never fade
Breaking free from the chains
A new chapter will be made

After isolation
I will rise
With hope in my heart and a fire burning bright
After isolation
I will shine
Entering a brand-new day after the endless fight

Darkness fades away as the dawn arrives
No longer hiding, hiding and disguise

After isolation
I will rise
With hope in my heart and a fire burning bright
After isolation
I will shine
Entering a brand-new day after the endless fight
After isolation
I will rise
I will rise
After isolation
I will shine
I will shine
