Crematory

Fearless, timeless
Take me to a place unknown
Boundless, spaceless
Where my soul can freely roam

Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
Destination
Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
Destination

Wildless, peaceless
Future far away and bright
Careless, nameless
Where my love and dreams collide
Restless, mindless
Guiding me without a care
Godless, blindless
With hope and glory in the air

Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
Destination
Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
Destination

Every turn, every twist
Brings me closer, closer to my bliss
With open eyes, with an open heart
Every turn, every twist
Brings me closer, closer to my bliss
With open eyes, with an open heart

Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
Destination
Destination - where the skies are clear
Destination - leaving all my fear
Destination - silence calls my name
