

Forsaken

Crematory

So you've been going deep, deep alone for years
No one will help, nobody hears, hears your request
They don't know your name or your existence
Blind and deaf, full of hate, they all pass you by

Godforsaken
You are not the holy one
Unforsaken
Your last hope is gone
Godforsaken
You don't have the last choice
Unforsaken
Mistrust your inner voice

How many lives have been wasted to learn
All religions on this earth relate to history
Why do we never get answers to desires
Headless, full of hate, running against the wall

Godforsaken
You are not the holy one
Unforsaken
Your last hope is gone
Godforsaken
You don't have the last choice
Unforsaken
Mistrust your inner voice

One word to hear them all
A life to experience
One look to see them all
Loneliness will come
One poison to kill them all
The book in all colours
One life to unite them all
Darkness will come

Godforsaken
You are not the holy one
Unforsaken
Your last hope is gone
Godforsaken
You don't have the last choice
Unforsaken
Mistrust your inner voice
