

Rise and Fall

Crematory

When did I become a stranger
Getting lost and got nowhere to go
Feeling dead - among the living
The sun is black the light is fading
Pouring rain will drown my will to fight
Is my life a dark illusion - help me father

Rise and fall - we rise again
Rise and fall - we rise again

Every day and every night
Fighting back the pain that's hurting me
One more drink to drown all sorrows
Wasted times of fake believing
Took away my true believe in me
Help me father to be free

Rise and fall - we rise again
Rise and fall - we rise again

This is my choice - this is my life
I rise and fall - just like the tide
And bringing water to the shore - we rise again
This is my dream - this is my wish
I rise and fall - just like the tide
And bringing water to the shore - we rise again

Rise and fall - we rise again
Eternal is the fight of good and evil
Rise and fall - we rise again
Can anyone here take my hand

Rise and fall - we rise again
Rise and fall - we rise again
