

Toxic Touch

Crematory

In the dark of the night
There's a restless touch
A deadly kiss
Hurting me so much
You came into my life
Like poison slowly creeping
Branded scars of my heart
The damage goes deep in

Your words were like venom
They stung with every line

Your toxic touch
Burning like fire
It leaves me broken
With a heart that's tired
Your toxic touch
Killing my desire
It leaves me broken
By the hand of a perfect liar

Your poisoned words
They filled my veins
Making me crave you
Despite all pain
I tried to break free
But I was just too weak
Addicted to your love
It's a dangerous peak

Your words were like venom
They stung with every line

Your toxic touch
Burning like fire
It leaves me broken
With a heart that's tired
Your toxic touch
Killing my desire
It leaves me broken
By the hand of a perfect liar
