

Hypernormalisation

Crime In Stereo

Cast your body off
Settle down, sales are up
Recharge your devices for exodus
I saw the two of you in love
Queueing up for cleaner blood
Active crisis actors warming up

In a sea of camera tech
Soft plastic stacked to hell

Abandon it!
Abandon it!

I saw the two of you were there
Queuing up for cleaner air
God forbid the software glitches out
The palm oil and petrol
Coca-Cola and cobalt
Let the future into your heart, into your heart

Sunlight swallowed up at night
Everywhere, all at once, darkness arrives
What the fuck is wrong with everyone?
What the fuck is wrong with everyone?

Abandon it!
Abandon it!

A sea of camera tech (abandon it)
Soft plastic stacked to hell (abandon it)
Sunrise, the smoke subsides
