

New Scenery

Crimpshrine

Saw too many old friends get old way too fast, and now younger people that I know are talking that same path.
Too many faces in too many places that I've never been to stick around in this town and watch it happen all over again...

Maybe I've just got to get out of this place,
cuz I start feeling left out when everything changes around me.
I think too much, at least today...
I wish it all would go away.
I guess it's time to check out some new scenery.
