

Strange And Beautiful

Crimson Glory

Dark eyes shine with strange desire
Velvet cold skin tastes like fire

Something in her eyes Makes you need to be inside her
Something in her twisted smile
Sends shivers down my spine

Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody, nobody really knows
Love to her is pain to you Tell you man she's strange and beautiful
So beautiful

Take it easy baby now your love is killing me
Your love is killing me
You can feel her deep inside
But you will never come to understand her

Round and round and down she goes
Where she stops nobody, nobody really knows
Love to her is pain to you
Tell you man she's strange and beautiful
Wicked and wonderful

Dark eyes shine with a strange desire
Velvet cold skin tastes like fire

Strange, strange
Strange and beautiful
Strange, strange
Strange and beautiful

Cold eyes burn with a dark desire
Velvet strange skin tastes like fire

Ladies and gentlemen welcome one and all
Come see the lady of your dreams
The show's about to start

Up and down and round she goes Where she stops nobody, nobody really knows
Love to her is just a game
Tell you man she's strange She's so strange and beautiful

Strange, strange
Strange and beautiful Strange, strange
Strange and beautiful
Strange, strange, strange
Strange and beautiful
Strange, strange, strange
Strange and beautiful
Strange...
