

Stand By Your Side

Cris Cab

Wake me up in the middle of the night
Tan lines on both sides
It's the way the cigarette burns every time

I've seen them rise and fall
But I'll be there through it all, I
I know guys try to hide
That's why I'll stand by your side
I've seen them rise and fall
Some shit I can't recall, I
Some guys, they swallow pride
That's why I'll stand by your side

You're my sunrise when the moon sets
You're the vision in my eyes, I never forget
When I call you, I know you'll come through
'Cause there isn't a damn thing you wouldn't do
You're my sunrise when the moon sets
You're the vision in my eyes, I never forget
When I call you, I know you'll come through
'Cause there isn't a damn thing you wouldn't do

I've seen them rise and fall
But I'll be there through it all, I
I know guys try to hide
That's why I'll stand by your side
I've seen them rise and fall
Some shit I can't recall, I
Some guys, they swallow pride
That's why I'll stand by your side
