

Beast

Crisix

Awake the beast
If you want to destroy
The limits plaguing your thoughts
Unravel your ploy

Refining my skills
Destroying every obstacle like Marshawn Lynch
Awake the beast

Everyday it's a run against the clock
Get the fuck outta bed
Get that shit done
Make it count, now's the time
I'm determined, I'm in beast mode

And then I change my skin
You can't fake it
And now I show my fangs
I awake the

Beast
Awake the Beast
Beast
Forget the rest
And awake the
Beast
Awake the Beast
Beast
Forget the rest
And awake the

If I have to destroy
The fears blocking my path
Gotta expel the agony
The illusion of choice won't last
I accept my suffering
Awake the beast
Pain's a cloak covering reality
Choking my throat and blinding my sight
Like a shot in the dark
Freezing fire with a spark
No pain, no gain
Limit is your mind
The only limit is your mind

Suffocation, cold sweat, I stretch my fists, my lungs cannot breathe
Gasping for air while my heart keeps pumping

Awake
Awake the Beast

Mind dissection, senses heighten while the rush kicks in
My mind scope reaching beyond my peak

Awake
Awake the Beast
It's time to change your skin

It's time to change your skin
It's time to show your fangs
It's time to rise
To reach out for the sky
It's time to awake the force within Beast

Beast
Awake the Beast
Beast
Forget the rest
And awake the
Beast
Awake the Beast
Beast
Forget the rest
And awake the Beast
