

Escape the Electric Fate

Crisix

Electric crown upon us
Surrounded by thunder and lightning chaos
Hold your horses, free your senses
One breath, just one breath closer to the edge

Age, age, age of blackness
Once you gaze your future then panic comes next
Old blind man's tale, we can't escape
I let it drag me

It's electric, in my bones
It feels goddamn electric
Won't stop it
Can't escape from the electric fate
Escape the electric fate

Unconscious ghost, deep fears
I remove these needles from my body
Tell me now, tell me now who wields the spear?
Hear the whispers in the eye of the Electric in my bones

It feels goddamn electric
Won't stop it
I unlock my brakes for the
Spastic, majestic
Come down, embrace the magic
Spastic, majestic
Can't escape
We can't escape from the electric fate
Nothing will stop the truth growing deep inside you

Now I hear the whispers
Now I hear the whispers in the eye
I hear the whispers in the eye of the electric fate!
I let it drag me

It's electric, in my bones
It feels goddamn electric
Won't stop it
I unlock my brakes for the
Spastic, majestic
Come down, embrace the magic
Spastic, majestic
Can't escape
We can't escape from the electric fate
