

We all hate a lot of stuff in our daily routine right?
You know, in the bottom of our hearts we are all haters
Let's talk about it, this song's about hate, motherfuckers
This is full hate definition

I try it, I really try it
But I can't contain myself
Searching the bright side of things but I can't
I cannot find it anywhere
I can't

Hey man, do you know why?
Because everything makes me sick

I hate TV, I hate radio
Phone calls, texting, silence, my balls
Hating fitness, hating fast food
Healthy people, smokers, life goals
I hate it all!
I hate it all!

I hate red and green traffic lights
But fuck, I do really hate the amber one too

Full hate definition
Full hate, full hate!
Full hate definition

Wait, wait, wait, hold it there guys
There might be something I don't hate
Shit, let me think something I like
Think, think, think
It's no good, fuck
I'm getting angrier and angrier
I can't take so much bullshit!

I hate coffee, I hate tea
Patriots, commies, Silent Hill
I hate movies, music, highschool
Your clothes, boots and motorcycle
I hate it all!
I hate it all!

I hate Beatles, I hate Stones, Captain Planet, Donald Trump
I hate Jesus, Santa Claus
Don't you celebrate Christmas?
I hate you the most

I hate the bible, I hate Darwin books
I hate my language, I also hate yours
I hate all cultures and history too
From Alexander the Great to Kim Jong-Un
I hate my band and also hate yours
Fuck, shit, fuck
I hate you all!
