

Macarena Mosh

Crisix

Remember what we said? Did you read the manifesto?
Get ready for a comeback
The sequel you didn't ask for
Time for part II, we still need mosh

You don't need to learn the steps, enjoy the dance
Swim in a collective trance
Check around yourself
How people mosh it up
Nobody really gives a fuck

Stretch out first
Warm it up or loose your neck
Show your moves
Break the floor against your back

Let's go with the first dance!

El baile, el baile, el baile, el baile de la muerte
The dance, the dance, the dance of death
El baile, el baile, el baile de la muerte
We call it Macarena Mosh
El baile de la muerte
The dance of death
El baile de la muerte
We call it Macarena

Sunday's family dinner, do you know my grandma's plan?
We'll shotgun all the cans
Mama and papa are joining, destroying all the place
How cool my parents are, they got their necks displaced

A living dynamo, cathartic mighty dance
No matter when or where
During breakfast, in the shower
Even while you're having sex

Are you ready for the next dance?
Here comes Macarena Mosh!
At the office, in the elevator
In the weirdest place you think
Can't stop spinning, breaking all
Like Gojira in Tokyo!

El baile, el baile de la muerte
The dance of death, el baile de la muerte
We call it Macarena Mosh

This is the dance that makes you fly
Best survival therapy
This dance is the real shit
Come and join us
Enjoy the Macarena Mosh

Are you ready for the last fucking dance?

El baile, el baile, el baile, el baile de la muerte

The dance, the dance, the dance of death
El baile, el baile, el baile de la muerte
We call it Macarena Mosh
El baile de la muerte
The dance of death
El baile de la muerte
Macarena
