Full Moon Howl

Crobot

Home…

Hear my full moon howl
Sharper than a willow's bow
Slowing down the stampede
In these oil dreams

When only dogs roam the streets some of us won't eat
The roads are paved with plagues of flies
Underneath the pale moonlight

Can't click your heels together
Oh no
Can't click your heels together
To get back home

Home…

A pitch-black experience
Aid me winds of Aeolus
I'm frightened by the sounds of sorcery

When only dogs roam the streets some of us won't eat
The roads are paved with plagues of flies
Underneath the pale moonlight

Can't click your heels together
Oh no
Can't click your heels together
To get back home

There's no ruby red slippers to take you home
There's no ruby red slippers to take you home

Home…

Can't click your heels together
Oh no
Can't click your heels together
To get back home
Can't click your heels together
Oh no
Can't click your heels together
To get back home
