Into the Fire

Crobot

Like a fool again
I fell right over it
And held on for too long

Then I got caught up in
The web you weaved around
Your ever rotting heart

I go to sleep just to dream about your nightmares

Ashes falling from the sky
But I keep coming anyway
(Running into the fire)

Staring evil in the eye
It's easier to walk away
(Running into the fire)
(Into the fire, yeah)

Turned me into stone
A bag of broken bones
Left to die all alone

So I fade to the places
That nobody faces
Lay me down with the graves of the nameless

I go to sleep just to dream about your nightmares

Ashes falling from the sky
But I keep coming anyway
(Running into the fire)

Staring evil in the eye
It's easier to walk away
(Running into the fire)

They're comin' out, I'm goin' in
If you never fight, you'll never win
Right here is where I'll stay
I'll be the one to dig my grave

Ashes falling from the sky
But I keep coming anyway
(Running into the fire)

Staring evil in the eye
It's easier to walk away
(Running into the fire)
(Into the fire)
