

Mountain

Crobot

Well, I have met my god today
Came to take the throne away
But they're crawlin', they're crawlin'
Out of my head, still callin'

A new religion has been given
You better pray your way to heaven

'Cause I am not a man, I am a mountain
'Cause I am not a man, I am a mountain
And I am made of stone

Well, I have met my god today
Introduced him to my blade
But they're crawlin', they're crawlin'
Out of my head, still callin'

A new religion has been given
You better pray your way to heaven

'Cause I am not a man, I am a mountain
No, I am not a man, I am a mountain
Looking down at what I once was, unholy son
I am not a man, I am a mountain
And I am made of stone

They're looking to devour
I bit the snake that bit me, yeah
Now I have been given the power
And it's not my final hour
'Cause I am made of stone

A new religion has been given
Pray your way to heaven
And yes, a new religion has been given
You better pray your way to heaven

'Cause I am not a man, I am a mountain
No, I am not a man, I am a mountain
Looking down at what I once was, unholy son
I am not a man, I am a mountain
And I am made of stone
