

Nothing

Crobot

Don't think I ever told ya
Don't think I ever really said
But you're tired of hearing it
Don't think I ever listened
Don't think I ever really cared
But you're tired of sayin' it

Words eaten, teeth bleedin'
Took a bite of my heart
Eyes blurry, crashed in a hurry
Lookin' out of control

In the darkest of nights with a flashing of white
May we hope to shed some light

We all bleed
So can we feel alive
And wonder why we all feel nothing
Yeah, you feel nothing

I guess I never noticed
I guess I never even heard
Things better left unsaid
I guess I'll never know and
I guess I never really learned
Not to get fooled again

Heart pounding, mouth foaming
For a taste of my screams
Empty stares in living nightmares
This haunting reality

In the darkest of nights with a flashing of white
May we hope to shed some light

We all bleed
So we can feel alive
And wonder why we all feel nothing

Killin' time chasing moonlight
Runnin' until you to find the day
When you feel nothing
When you feel nothing

When all the world has nothing left
They wanna kill it till it's down to its last breath

We all bleed
So can we feel alive
And wonder why we all feel nothing

We all bleed
So can we feel alive (so can we feel alive)
And wonder why we all feel nothing
Wonder why we all feel nothing

Killin' time chasing moonlight (chasing moonlight)

Runnin' until you to find the day
When you feel nothing

Yeah, you feel nothing
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, nothing
Oh, nothing
