

I am losing all my fights without a weapon
And every time I need a hammer, I'm the nail
Now the doom is spreading out just like a cancer
Hiding every ugly scar under my veil

No one knows the shadow keeps my secrets
I will never, ever let you in

Am I blinded by the light?
Am I blinded?
Will I ever get to see the sun again?
Am I guided by the night?
Am I guided?
I will never, ever doubt obsidian

I've been swallowed by the mouth of the darkness
But from the ashes of my mind, I have prevailed
All my ghosts are waiting right here behind me
Will you pray for every one I've failed? Yeah

No one knows the shadow keeps my secrets
I will never, ever let you in

Am I blinded by the light?
Am I blinded?
Will I ever get to see the sun again?
Am I guided by the night?
Am I guided?
I will never, ever doubt obsidian

Never doubt obsidian, yeah

Am I blinded? Am I blinded?
Am I blinded? Am I blinded?
Am I blinded by the light?

Am I blinded by the light?
Am I blinded?
Will I ever get to see the sun again?
Am I guided by the night?
Am I guided?
I will never, ever doubt obsidian, yeah

Never doubt obsidian

This is oblivion
Welcome, obsidian
