

Weigh Me Down

Crobot

My eyes never told a lie, but sometimes they overlook the truth
Visually magnetised, another set that's stuck on you like glue

The way she throws her curves got me lost for a moment and I can't control it anymore

If my hearts in her hands I know one day it'll end up on the floor

I can't forget you're the one that hung me out

If I hold on to my lust it'll weigh me down

My mouth never promised ya a single thing I could not do

Verbally sexualised the one things that's sugarcoated is you

From her head right down to her heels, she's got me spinning my wheels

Maybe we'll make a lovers deal, but right now I'll shoot first

I wanna know how it feels

I can't forget your the one who hung me out

If I hold on to my lust it'll weigh my down
