

Falling

Crooked Colours

Don't mean to wake you when I'm calling so late
Been thinking 'bout you and I know you relate
Know all these feelings just keep going to waste
So I call

You keep on talking without playing your hand
You draw it out like you don't understand
And I'm just here feeling like less of a man
'Cause you know

I've been truly falling
In over my head
Your loving keeps on calling
Pulling me ahead

I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling

I'm sinking, I'm all in
Call it what you may
This cup is overflowing
And I'm falling in

It's all a game and I can't help playing
And when I'm down, no, I can't start again
You're taking lives like you know what's ahead
But you don't

I've been truly falling
In over my head
Your loving keeps on calling
Pulling me ahead

I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling

I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling

I'm sinking, I'm all in
Call it what you may
This cup is overflowing
And I'm falling in

I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling
I've been truly falling, falling

I'm sinking, I'm all in
Call it what you may

This cup is overflowing
And I'm falling in
