Keep Your Mouth For Lying

Crooked Colours

Oh, I thought I had more time
Try and make things right
Before we lost our minds
Fall out into the night
But you're so tired
Throw your mouth towards the lights
Let your heart bend minds

Show me which is in your mind
Give me a moment of hope

Fall out into the fire
Burn what you were holding tight
For the frightful night
Throw your mouth into the lights
Come, let's bend some minds
Oh, I thought I had more time
Gone and lost my mind
My mind

Show me which is in your mind
Give me a moment of hope
Give me a moment of hope
