

Moving On

Crooked Colours

There you go again, playing with my head
I wish somebody could come in and mediate this mess
And I've been thinking back to everything we had
The nights we spent on the patio I'll never forget

And I don't wanna hear you say
In another year we'll have it all
Notice something new everyday
Knowing that I'll miss it all

I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
Hold me down tonight, I feel like fading
If I can't feel your arms then I'll be broken

There you go again, leaving me on read
I wish somebody would come in and fill this empty bed
I've been holding back on all the thoughts I've had
Of coming over and banging on your front door again

I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
I need you here, yeah
You need me too, I know you do
I'll be right here, yeah
I'll wait for you till you say "I do"
Hold me down tonight, I feel like fading
If I can't feel your arms then I'll be broken
