Crooked Colours

Can I pull you apart?
And inspect your soul?
Time spent in the dark
Is what makes us whole
And I know you're scared, honey
Sometimes it's dark, honey
I know there's something more to say
But I don't know
Just step into the darkness with me

Can I show you the part
I've been working on
Time pulls us apart
But it makes me strong
I know you're scared, honey
Sometimes I'm gone, honey
I know there's something you wanna say
But I don't know
Just step into the darkness with me
