

None Of Your Business

Crossfaith

I don't give a fuck about
You will never ever freak me out
No choice you better back down
I'll give you shit and staple your mouth

You still think you can control us
With your plastic phrase
There's no taste that's in my mouth
I'll spit it out to your face

How can you judge my fate
We never gonna obey
Probably you are missing the point
Now that you walking on blade

I don't give a fuck about what you fucking say
We don't give a fuck about what is in your brain
I don't give a fuck about what you fucking say
We don't give a fuck about what is in your brain

(Hey you) We don't give a shit
(Hey you) You don't mean nothing
Not your business
Not your business
Not your business
Not your business
