

ZERO

Crossfaith

This is the claimed responsibility we're coming back from hell
This boredom made me itchy it's god-damn insane
I cut me down and tore myself to see a brand-new day
Everything was fucked now it's back to the future
(Go) we've had enough
(Go) what's going on?
Just kill all the frustration
(Go) it don't stop
(Go) we set it off
Watch it all blowing up
It's time to go

Breakaway from the same old day
Then we start again (Back to zero)
Take the weight of our burden, pain
We can live again (Back to zero)

We rise, we rise
We're coming back in the game
We rise, we rise
Back to zero
We rise, we rise
We ain't never stuck in the frame
We rise, we rise
Nothing will break us down

Are you ready or not
We going harder
Burning everything
The mad volcano
(Volcano, volcano)

I need no what you say
Go away
Don't swerve in my lane
Stay away
You can not bother me
Go away
I need no what you say
You better know that you can't stop me now

(I think it's too late)

We're against all fate
We will never let this go

We take it all
We back to zero

Breakaway from the same old day
Then we start again (Back to zero)
Take the weight of our burden, pain
We can live again

We rise, we rise
We're coming back in the game
We rise, we rise

Back to zero
We rise, we rise
We ain't never stuck in the frame
We rise, we rise
Nothing will break us down
