English Trees

Crowded House

English trees in my garden
We planted seeds in a faraway land
In between the palms and the succulent grove

They lose their leaves in the winter
Mark the seasons for him and for her
Once upon a time in the fallen snow
Up against the sky made a silhouette show

England cries and she plays for him Two chords entwined like a requiem Although it□s springtime, colour is new In Regent□s Park, I will mourn for you

And I must be wise somehow Cause my heart s been broken down

It□s so far to fall And so hard to climb Nothing□s sadder, I know Than the passing of time

Won□t forget me You won□t forget me

English trees in my garden
Summer's missed you, my darling
And all your crimes are forgiven
Yeah, all your crimes are forgiven

And I must be wise somehow

English trees in my garden
